I-I. "STRIKE" ALL OVER; BOATS GOING OUT ON TIME TODAY

So far as the Inter-Island can ascertain, the "strike" of 20 of its Japanese sailors for higher wages after the company had already granted one increase of 25 cents a day to its seamen, is all over.

Steamers of the company are going out on time and no trouble of any kind has been reported, according to Acting General Manager Norman E.
Gedge this morning.

No letter has been received by the company stating what the men who walked out want, other than the request presented to the Inter-Island some weeks ago by James H. Hakole, telling of the higher wage scale the men want.

KALIHI HOUSE COMPLAINED OF IS INVESTIGATED

Deputy City Attorney Chillingworth and Pastor C. H. McVey of the Kalihi Union church this afternoon are conducting an investigation of premises at Kalihi which, the pastor charges, are being used for disorderly purposes by men and women and of which he says frequent and apparently ineffective complaints have been made to the police.

M. Manini, the Hawaiian arrested yesterday afternoon after McVey had visited the police station and secured a warrant, will be tried later. The case this morning was continued until tomorrow, pending Chillingworth's investigations.

Both McVey and Captain of Detectives McDuffie this morning said that they had no belligerent intentions during the scene in police court yesterday. McDuffie declares that such a thing as physical hostilities never entered his head and that their exchange of words, though plain and vigorous, carried no implication of "settling it outside" by physical argument.
McVey says that when he told Mc-Duffie he would answer personally in the court room or outside he had no bellicose intentions but wished to emphasize that he stood by his declaration that he had been unable to get the police to act in cleaning up Kalihi.

He says also that the delay in getting action will make it difficult to secure any convictions, as, after he had finally been visited by a police officer, inmates of the house apparently took alarm and have since been conspicuous by their absence.

while the two latter colleges have been vard and Princeton men visiting in quested to communicate with C. F.
